WHAT	HOW
The design makes it the perfect gift	Its presentation makes this candle a beautiful decorative object, with an exciting secret: Its vegetable oils are ideal for the most sensual massages.
It enhances play	The sublime texture, the mild temperature, the aromas, the light... all create a special atmosphere that favours intimate play.
Weapon of seduction	The aroma of Aphrodisia stimulates the sense of smell, the most sensitive and rapid sense with the greatest evocative power. The most important and decisive sense when feeling attracted to someone.
The ideal temperature	It contains no wax or paraffin and is mainly composed of coconut oil, which melts at a very low temperature, so there is no risk of burns.
No showers! If you want to keep playing.	Free of paraffins, waxes and mineral oils. The natural and plant-based ingredients melt and create a rich massage oil, one that isn't sticky and doesn't block your pores.
Take care of yourself while you play	No parabens or agents that accelerate combustion. This candle combines coconut and almond oil to take care of your skin. And the wick is 100% cotton, leaving no odours or waste so it's perfect for the next massage.
Quality Guaranty	Our products are manufactured in Spain. They are 100% plant based and have not been tested on animals. They are respectful of your skin and the environment: since natural oils of fruits and seeds are used, no tree has to be cut for this product.
Aphrodisia and the smells of the Kama Sutra	Created exclusively for Bijoux Indiscrets and inspired by an ancient recipe of the Kama Sutra that combines rose, jasmine, and ylang-ylang. Its fragrance, full of aphrodisiac aromas (jasmine and ylang-ylang), reinforces self esteem and enhances desire.
